

ABOUT UAS

Engaging in contemporary art and ideas.

Situated in the heart of downtown Calgary, UAS supports emerging art through public exhibitions, workshops and educational programming, the provision of production resources, and opportunities for discourse.

UAS exhibitions showcase early emerging artists as an important aspect of critical engagement in provincial contemporary art

SUPPORT UAS

The UAS community is composed of a broad spectrum of public and community members, local arts professionals, patrons, businesses, and volunteers.

UAS operations and programming are made possible only with the help of the extensive list of individuals who contribute their time and efforts to the organization including: Community and Public Members, Committee Members, Board Members, Studio Members, Practicum Students, Donors and Volunteers.

VOLUNTEER

Volunteering with an artist-run centre is a great way to become familiar with artist-run and nonprofit operations, get to know other artists and arts enthusiasts in the community, and get some experience in the cultural sector!

How would you like to contribute?

- Opening receptions
- Education & Event programming
- Fundraising
- Administrative work
- Exhibition installation/ strike
